

AAM Call for Entries

Exhibition-Related Competitions

Tired of working in obscurity? Have an exhibition project you're proud of? Apply to one – or all – of the AAM exhibition competitions. Winners will be announced at the 2022 American Alliance of Museums Annual Meeting in Boston.

Excellence in Exhibition

Recognizes outstanding achievement in the exhibition format from all types and sizes of museums, zoos, aquariums, botanical gardens, and any other types of noncommercial institutions offering exhibitions to the public.

Excellence in Label Writing

Recognizes outstanding and innovative label writing in museums, zoos, aquariums, universities, and libraries.

MUSE Awards

Recognizes outstanding achievement in Galleries, Libraries, Archives, or Museums (GLAM) media. Presented to institutions or independent producers who use digital media to enhance the GLAM experience and engage audiences, the MUSE awards celebrate scholarship, community, innovation, creativity, education, and inclusiveness.

Learn more about the application process for competitions at:

www.aam-us.org/programs/awards-competitions

AAM Annual Meeting Scholarships

The American Alliance of Museums Annual Meeting Scholarship is a professional growth opportunity that provides financial support for students and museum professionals at any stage of their career to attend the AAM Annual Meeting & MuseumExpo. The program is designed to nurture greater inclusivity – for the benefit of museums, museum professionals, and the diverse audiences they serve – by supporting the professional development of individuals from underrepresented or marginalized groups who work in many museum functional areas including exhibitions.

Learn more about the application process for scholarships at:

annualmeeting.aam-us.org/alliance-scholarship-program 